

1 vs. 1 Wall Game

DESCRIPTION

To set up this 1 vs 1 soccer drill, mark off a rectangle that is about 10 x 20 yards. Two opposing players start in the rectangle, one player starts with the ball. The object of the game is to control the ball across the other player's end line. Each player has a teammate on the side line they can use when they have possession of the ball. The players may use their team mate as often as they like. After a player scores a point the other player starts with the ball.
